MEMBERSHIP

General

2. The persons who were Members of the Association on the date of the adoption of these Rules shall continue to be Members of the Association and such other persons shall be Members of the Association, as the Council shall admit to Membership in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained.

3. The privileges of Membership shall not be transferable or transmissible.

Qualification of Members

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of Rule 2, no person shall be qualified for Membership of the Association unless he:

(a) is a citizen of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka and

(b) is a corporate member of the Institution of Engineers, Sri Lanka or of any other professional institution of engineers acceptable to the Council of the Association, and

(c) has 3 years of professional experience subsequent to admission to corporate membership, and also should have minimum of 10 years’ experience after graduation, and

(d) is in active practice as a Consulting Engineer as deemed by the Council, either individually or as a director, partner or a consultant in a company or firm of Consulting Engineers or is an employee holding a responsible position as a senior engineer in a Government department or a statutory engineering organization with the right to private practice.

(2) No person shall be qualified for Membership of the Association if he:

(a) is an executive director, managing director or managing partner of any firm carrying on any contracting or manufacturing business dealing with the class of work to which his practice relates, or an agent for any company, firm or partnership carrying on such business, or a person having a major interest in any company, firm or partnership carrying on such business.

(b) is connected with, or has an interest in any company, firm or person who canvasses for Consulting Engineers’ work.

Provide that nothing in this Rule shall be construed as preventing or precluding a Member if he so chooses,

(i) from having his name, designation and address inscribed on display boards erected on the site of works for which the Member is the Consulting Engineer or on commemorative tablets or stones incorporated in the finished structure, or

(ii) from publishing with his client’s approval, articles, treatises or illustrations relating to the works for which the Member is the Consulting Engineer either on his own account or in association with other parties concerned with such works, or

(iii) from permitting his name to appear with illustrations for works with which he has been professionally connected, published as parts of advertisements by clients, contractors or manufacturers, provided that the Member takes all reasonable steps to ensure that his name appears in an unobtrusive manner and not in any way as suggesting solicitation of professional work, or

(iv) from publishing his name, designation, address and the details of the services offered in a trade directory.

(3) No person shall be elected to Membership of the Association unless he is, in the opinion of the Council, of such standing and experience as to entitle him to practice as a Consulting Engineer.

(4) No Company or firm shall be qualified for Membership of the Association unless:

(a) the company is registered as company under the Companies Act or the name of the firm is registered under the Business Names Ordinance, and

(b) the primary object of the company or the nature of business of the firm is the provision of engineering consultancy services, and

(c) not less than 51 per cent of its directors or partners are persons having qualifications for Membership of the Association, and

(d) in the case of a company, more than sixty percent of the ordinary shares are held by citizens of Sri Lanka.

The company or firm shall be represented by a director/partner who is a Member of the Association.

Election of Members

5. Every person desirous of becoming a Member of the Association shall make his application in writing according to such form as shall be approved by the Council from time to time, along with the admission fee at the rates stated in Schedule 1 of these Rules. On receipt of such application and the admission fee, the Honorary Secretary shall refer the same to the Admissions Committee for their recommendation. The recommendation of the Admissions Committee shall be submitted to a meeting of the Council, and if approved by the Council, the applicant shall be nominated for election. Notice of such nomination giving the name, address and qualifications of the applicant shall be sent to each Member of the Association. Any objections with reasons why the applicant should not be admitted as a Member shall be submitted to the Honorary Secretary within 14 days of such notice.

6. At a meeting of the Council held after an interval of not less than 30 days after the meeting at which the applicant was nominated for election, and in the event of no objections having been received in the interim or such objections, if any, being overruled under Rule 7, the applicant shall be duly elected and the Honorary Secretary shall forward him Forms A and B, set out in the Appendix to these Rules. The admission shall take effect on receipt of Form B duly signed along with the subscription for the current year, after which his name shall be added to the Register of Members.

7. Any objections to the election of the applicant as a Member received within the stipulated 14 days shall be considered by the Council. The decision whether such objections are to be overruled or not shall rest with the Council, whose decision shall be final.

8. If the application for Membership is rejected by the Council, 75 percent of the admission fee shall be refunded to the applicant.
Election of Non-Practicing Members

9. The Council may on the retirement from practice of any Member of the Association who had the Membership for a continuous period of not less than 10 years and provided that he is not otherwise ineligible for Membership, elect him for such period as Council may decide as a Non-Practicing Member of the Association, without subscription. Such election shall be considered on the application made by the Member. A Non-Practicing Member shall be entitled to notice of and to attend all General Meetings, and to take part in discussions thereat, but he shall not have the right to vote on any matter.

Election of Temporary Members

10. The Council may at its discretion elect a foreign national who is qualified for Membership except for Rule 4 (1) (a), for such period as they may decide, as a Temporary Member of the Association. A Temporary Member shall pay admission fee and subscription at the rates stated in Schedules 1 and 2 of these Rules. A Temporary Member shall be entitled to notice of and to attend all General Meetings, and to take part in discussions thereat, but he shall not have the right to vote on any matter.

Subscription of Members

11. Subscription shall be paid annually at the rates stated in Schedule 2 of these Rules or as amended by the Council and approved by the Members at a General Meeting. Subscriptions for the year become due on the 1st of January of that year, every new Member shall immediately upon his election pay his subscription for the then current year.

12. (a) In the event of any Member not paying his subscription within three months after the same has become due, the Honorary Treasurer shall at any time after such three months have elapsed and with the approval of the Council notify such Member in the Form C set out in the Appendix to these Rules. In the event of the subscription not being paid within one month of the said notice the Council may remove such Member’s name from the Register of Members.

(b) The Council may, on the application of a Member whose name has been removed from the Register of Members for non-payment of arrears of subscription, reinstate such name on the Register of Members if the Member pays the subscription due for the year of reinstatement and a reinstatement fee equal to the annual subscription.

Duties of Members

13. Every Member shall in all professional matters act in accordance with the Code of Professional Conduct of the Association.

14. No Member shall accept any trade commission, discount, allowance or indirect payment or other consideration in connection with any professional work on which he is engaged. His charges to clients shall constitute the only remuneration for his services.

15. No Member shall without disclosing the fact in writing to his client, be a shareholder or have a financial interest in any company, firm or person carrying on any contracting or manufacturing business dealing with the class of work to which his practice relates.

16. No Member shall receive directly or indirectly any royalty or any gratuity or commission in respect of any patented or protected article or process used on or for the purpose of the work in respect of which he is acting for a client, unless and until such royalty, gratuity or commission has been authorized in writing by such client.

17. No Member shall be the medium of payments made on his client’s behalf, but shall only issue certificates for payment.

18. No Member shall place orders on his own behalf, in connection with professional works but shall only do so explicitly on behalf of his client.

19. No Member shall solicit professional work either directly or indirectly or by an agent, nor shall he pay by commission or otherwise, any person who may introduce clients to him.

20. No Member shall advertise for professional services other than in trade directories.

21. No Member shall compete in regard to consultancy services by knowingly underbidding for professional charges quoted by another Member.

22. (a) No Member shall attempt directly or indirectly to supplant another Member, nor shall he review or take over work of another Member acting as a Consulting Engineer for the same client, until he has either obtained the consent of such Member or has been formally notified by the client that the connection of such Member with the work has been terminated.

(b) No Member shall act so as to injure, or attempt to injure, whether directly or indirectly, the professional reputation, prospects or business of another Member, provided that this Rule shall not be taken as prohibiting expression of technical opinion on behalf of his client before a tribunal or in a commissioned report, or of leading a complaint of the conduct of another Member to a competent body which lays down rules of conduct.

23. No Member shall conduct himself in a manner, nor act in any capacity, nor hold any appointment, which in the opinion of the Council prejudices his position as a Consulting Engineer or as a Member of the Association or is prejudicial to the interests of the Association.

24. No Member shall take part in a design competition involving the submission of designs for engineering work unless an assessor who shall be an engineer of acknowledged standing has been appointed to whom all such designs are to be submitted for adjudication.

25. A member practicing in a country other than Sri Lanka may order his conduct according to the code of professional conduct or code of ethics of any national association or body in that country and recognized for this purpose by the Association.

26. The following and no other abbreviation may be used by the Members to signify their connection with the Association.

M Cons. E. (SL)

Cessation of Membership

27. (a) A Member shall cease to be a Member:
   (i) upon giving to the Association notice in writing that he resigns Membership;
   (ii) if a receiving order is made against him by a court of law;
   (iii) if he becomes of unsound mind;
   (iv) if he is convicted of any offence and ordered to be imprisoned for a period of not less than three months without the option of a fine;
   (v) if he shall cease to be qualified under any of the provisions of these Rules.

(b) The Council shall have power by resolution to expel from Membership of the Association any Member who in their opinion shall have committed a breach of the provisions of these Rules or shall have been guilty of such conduct as shall have rendered him unfit to continue to be a Member of the Association, but no such resolution shall have any operation or effect unless the member concerned shall have been given a proper opportunity of submitting for the consideration of the Council any statement or explanation in writing which he may desire, and of attending and being heard at a meeting of the Council at which his actions or conduct are to be under consideration.

GENERAL MEETINGS

Convening of General Meetings.

28. The Annual General Meeting of the Members shall be held in every year on a day in the Month of December and at such place as may be determined by the Council.

29. Not less than 42 days prior to the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting, Honorary Secretary shall issue a preliminary notice giving the date of the Annual General Meeting and calling for resolutions, if any, to reach him not less than 28 days prior to the date fixed for the meeting.

30. Not less than 14 days prior to the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting, Honorary Secretary shall issue a final notice of such meeting giving the place, date and time of the meeting including the agenda for the meeting, any resolution to be moved, and in the case of special business in the agenda the nature of such business.

31. Any Member entitled to be present and vote may submit any resolution to an Annual General Meeting, provided that a notice in writing signed by him and seconded by another Member containing the proposed resolution, and stating his intention to move the same, is served to reach the Honorary Secretary not less than 28 days prior to the date fixed for the meeting. Upon receipt of any resolution from a Member or from the Council, the Honorary Secretary shall include such resolution in the final notice of the Annual General Meeting.

32. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Special General Meetings.

33. The Council may whenever it thinks fit convene Special General Meetings. Special General Meetings shall also be convened by the Honorary Secretary upon receipt of a written requisition signed by at least fifteen Members, to consider any matter including any resolutions specified in such requisition. A minimum of 14 days notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting, and the nature of the special business shall be given.

34. The following shall be deemed special business.

   (i) all business transacted at a Special General Meeting.

   (ii) all business transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure accounts, balance sheet, reports of the Council, and report of the Auditors, the election of members of the Council, and the appointment of and fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

35. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting, or the non-receipt of such notice by any person entitled to receive notice thereof, shall not invalidate any resolution passed or the proceedings at such meeting.

Proceeding at General Meetings
36. The business at every Annual General Meeting of the Association shall include;

   (i) Consideration of the accounts and balance sheet of the Association, the report of the Auditors of the Association and any reports laid before it by the Council.

   (ii) Appointment of an Auditor or Auditors.

37. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided ten Members present in person shall be a quorum.

38. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened on the requisition of Members shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Council shall appoint, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present shall be a quorum.

39. The President of the Association shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting, but if there shall be no President of the Association, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the Vice president shall preside. If the Vice president shall not be present or unwilling to preside, the Members present shall choose some member of the council, or if no such member be present, or if all the members of the Council present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some Member of the Association present at such meeting to preside as chairman.

40. The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn a meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as for an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the Members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

41. At all General Meetings a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded by the chairman of the meeting or by at least three Members present in person and entitled to vote, before a vote is taken by show of hands. Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against that resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

42. Subject to the provisions of Rule 44, if a poll be demanded in a manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

43. No poll shall be demanded for the election of a chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment.

44. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
45. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

Votes of members.

46. Every Member including a company or firm shall have one vote at a General Meeting. A Member company or firm shall be represented by a director/partner who is a Member. Such a director/partner should hold a written authority from the company or firm to represent it. An individual Member, representing a Member company or firm, shall be entitled to cast an additional vote on behalf of the company or firm.

47. No person other than a Member whose name is on the Register of Members of the Association and who is not in arrears of subscription in respect of Membership or of other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association for over one year, shall be entitled to vote on any question at any General Meeting.

48. A member company or firm or individual Member unable to be present in person may appoint a proxy on Form D of the Appendix to these Rules, to attend a General Meeting and to vote at the meeting. The proxy shall be a Member of the Association.

THE COUNCIL

General

49. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Council which until otherwise determined by a General Meeting shall consist of eleven Members of the Association.

50. The president and members of Council on the date of adoption of these Rules shall continue in office subject to their retirement, re-election and continuing in office being in terms of Rules 55 and 56.

President, Vice President, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer

51. (a) Subject to the provisions of Rule 73, at their first meeting after every Annual General Meeting of the Association (which shall be held within one month after such Annual General Meeting), the Council shall elect a member of the Council to each of the following offices for a term of one year.

(i) to hold office as President of the Association;
(ii) to hold office as Vice President of the Association;
(iii) to hold office as Honorary Secretary of the Association;
(iv) to hold office as Honorary Treasurer of the Association
(v) to hold office as Honorary Assistant Secretary of the Association; and
(vi) to hold office as Honorary Assistant Treasurer of the Association;
(vii) to hold office as Editor,
(viii) to hold office as Coordinator, Young Professional Forum

(b) The members of the Council so elected shall hold office until the election to respective offices at the first meeting of the new Council following the next Annual General Meeting.

(c) If a vacancy arises at any time in any of the aforesaid offices, it shall be filled by the Council by appointment of one of the members of the Council, and the member so appointed shall hold office until the election to that office at the first meeting of the new Council following the next Annual General Meeting.

(d) A retiring President shall be eligible for re-election provided that he has not held the office of President for more than two years in succession immediately prior to such re-election.

Powers of the Council

52. The Council may exercise all such powers of the Association, and do on behalf of the Association all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Association, and as are not by the Act or by these Rules required to be exercised or done by the Association in General Meeting. Such acts by the Council shall nevertheless be subject to the provisions of the Act and these Rules, and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid provisions as may be prescribed by the Association in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Association in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the council which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

53. The members for the time being of the Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body provided always that in case the members of the Council shall at any time be reduced in number to less than five it shall be lawful for them to act as the Council for the purpose of filing up vacancies in their body, or of summoning a General Meeting, but not for any other purpose.

54. All moneys, cheques, bills and notes belonging to the Association shall be paid to or deposited with the Association’s bankers to an account opened in the name of the Association. Cheques of the Association’s bankers, until otherwise from time to time resolved upon by the Council, shall be signed by Honorary Treasurer or, in the absence of the Honorary Treasurer, by the Honorary Assistant Treasurer and either the President or the Honorary Secretary named under Rule 51. The Association’s banking account shall be kept with such banker or bankers as the Council shall from time to time determine.

Election and Rotation of Members of the Council

55. (a) Not less than three members of Council shall retire annually. They will be eligible for re-election provided that they shall not have been members of Council for a continuous period of more than three years immediately prior to re-election. However, notwithstanding this requirement they will be eligible for re-election if there are no other nomination from members for election to the Council.

(b) The three or more members of the Council to retire as aforesaid shall be those who have been longest continuously in the Council immediately prior to the date of retirement.

56. A retiring president of the Association will continue as a Council member for the following year and will be designated Immediate Past President. When the incumbent President is elected for a consecutive term, the incumbent Immediate Past President will also continue for the following year.

57. A declaration of the election of all new members of the Council shall be made at the Annual General Meeting and such new members shall take office at the commencement of the first meeting of the new Council following the Annual General Meeting.

58. The Honorary Secretary shall, along with the preliminary notice of the Annual General Meeting in terms of Rule 29, send to each Member of the Association a list of names of those retiring members of the Council, distinguishing those who are eligible and not eligible for re-election, together with application forms for nomination of members to the Council in place of all those retiring members.

59. Every Member may nominate one member for election as a member of the Council and shall enter the nomination on the forms for the purpose sent in terms of in Rule 58. Such forms must be signed by the Member nominating and by another Member seconding the nomination, and the forms so signed together with a statement from the Member nominated that he accepts nomination and will serve if elected, must be sent to reach the Honorary Secretary not less than 28 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting at which the election of the Council is to be declared.

60. The Honorary Secretary shall send to each Member of the Association along with the final notice of the Annual General Meeting in terms of Rule 30, a complete list of such nominations and the number of vacancies in the Council. If the number of valid nominations exceeds the number of vacancies, ballot paper consisting of all valid nominations shall be sent to each Member. Each Member may mark on each such ballot paper an “X” against the names of each of the persons for whom he wishes to vote, but not exceeding the number of vacancies on the ballot paper and shall send such ballot papers so marked in a sealed envelope to the Honorary Secretary so that the same shall reach the Honorary Secretary at least 7 days before the date fixed for such Annual General Meeting. Any ballot paper on which votes have been cast for more than the number of vacancies shall void.

A valid nomination referred to above shall satisfy the following criteria;

No person other than a Member whose name has been on the Register of Members of the Association for more than two years and who is not in arrears of subscription in respect of membership or other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association for over one year, shall be entitled to be nominated or to nominate or second a nomination.

61. The Council shall appoint from amongst the Members of the Association who are not on the list of nominations two Members to act as scrutineers, who shall on the morning of and prior to the Annual General Meeting open the ballot papers and count the votes, and the Members who receive the most votes shall at the Annual General Meeting be declared duly elected to fill the vacancies. In the event of an equality of votes the names of such Members as have an equal number of votes shall be submitted to a ballot of the members present at the Annual General Meeting, and the election shall be determined accordingly and not by the casting vote of the chairman of the meeting.

62. Any vacancy in the Council may be filled up by the Council, but the Member appointed to fill such vacancy shall retire along with the Council members retiring in terms of Rule 55. Such retirement shall be in addition to the retirements stipulated in Rule 55.

63. Subject to the provisions of Rules 31 and 33 as to the giving of notice of special business, the Association may from time to time at a General Meeting increase or reduce the number of members of the Council and determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number shall go out of office, and make any consequential alteration in the provisions of these Rules as to the manner of election of members of the Council.

64. The Association may by a resolution adopted at a General meeting remove any member of the Council before the expiration of his period of office. The Council shall then appoint another Member in his place and the provisions of Rule 62 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the member so appointed.
Disqualification of Members of the Council

65. The office of a member of the Council shall be vacated:
   (a) if he ceases to be a Member of the Association;
   (b) if by notice in writing to the Association he resigns his office;
   (c) if he ceases to hold office by reason of any order made under the Act;
   (d) if he is removed from office by a resolution duly passed under Rule 64;
   (e) if he fails to attend at least three of any twelve consecutive meetings of the Council unless he has obtained from the Council leave of absence owing to being abroad, illness or other sufficient reason.

Proceeding of the Council

66. (a) The Council may frame such regulation for the conduct of their business, including the determination of the place and time of meetings of the Council and for the giving of notice thereof as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the Act and of these Rules.
   (b) The quorum at meeting of the Council shall be five members.
   (c) Voting at meetings of the Council shall be by show of hands and every member of the Council shall have one vote; in the event of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have an additional or casting vote.
   (d) On the written request of a member of the Council or of any five Members of the Association, the Honorary Secretary shall as soon as possible afterwards summon a meeting of the Council to consider any written submission.
   (e) if he fails to attend any three consecutive meetings of the Council unless he has obtained from the Council leave of absence owing to being abroad, illness or other sufficient reason.

67. The President of the Association shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Council but if there shall be no president of the Association or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to preside, then the Vice-president of the Association shall preside as chairman of the meeting. In the event the Vice president of the Association is also not present or is unwilling to preside as chairman of the meeting, then the members of the Council present shall choose one of their members to be chairman of the meeting.

68. A meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions under these Rules or vested in the Council under the Act.

69. Subject to Section 11 of the Act on appointment of committees, the Council may appoint committees composed of members of the Council including if necessary Members of the Association to inquire into or advise the Council on any matter the Council deems fit. Such committees shall conduct their business in accordance with the terms of reference issued to it by the Council and make its deliberations in conformity with the provisions of the Act and these Rules. The Council in its final deliberations will take account of the recommendations and reports of the committee, but shall not be bound to follow the findings of the committee.

70. All acts bone fide done by any meeting of the Council or of any committee of the Council shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Council.

71. The Council shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of office bearers made by the Council and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Association and of the Council and of committees of the Council and all business transacted at such meeting, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of such meeting, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

72. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being of the Council or of any committee of the Council who are duly entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Council or of such committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Council or of such committee duly convened and constituted.

Professional Secretary

73. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of Rule 51, the Council may appoint a professional secretary for such time, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.
